AMEND Senate Bill No. 1728

House Bill No. 1551*

by adding the following language immediately before the last sentence of the amendatory language of SECTION 1:

For recipients of medical assistance who are subject to the work and community engagement requirements imposed by this act and who have minor children, the state shall seek necessary approval to use TANF funds to pay senior citizens to care for the minor children while the recipient is fulfilling the work and community engagement requirements.
